This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATIO.

CUM aliquot abhinc annis in collegio noſtro verſarer, ab amico quodam rogatus codicem MS. in bibliotheca ſervatum mihi evolvendum ſuſcepi. Hinc forte evenit, ut non ſine admiratione invenerim catalogos MSS. ea quidem feſtinatione plerumque eſſe compilatos, ut neque de nomine autorum neque de contentis codicum fides ſemper eis ſit adhibenda. Prodiit ſane primus catalogus MSS. qui hanc bibliothecam illuſtrant, in Ecloga cl. Jameſii, et illinc in Catalogum MSS. Angliæ et Hiberniæ tranſcriptus; in quo pluſquam centum codices omittuntur, et reliqui nulla fere deſcribuntur diligentia. Satis habuit compilator, ſi indicem in fronte cujuſvis codicis occurrentem, ſæpe a neoterico quodam imperite et jejune factum tranſcriberet. Hunc quidem feliciore auſu ſecutus eſt Stanleius, qui collegio præfuit regnante Gulielmo III. ipſe enim codices ſingulos examinavit, et catalogum etſi ſuis numeris haud abſolutum; priori tamen multo limatiorem condidit et in lucem edidit. Sed deſuere viro alioquin doctiſſimo multa ad hunc laborem adjumenta, quæ poſtea ſuppeditavit hujus ſeculi induſtria: haud mirum igitur ſi de antiquitate MSS. ſæpe perperam judicaverit Stanleius; et condonandum viro aliis curis impedito, aliis literis intento, ſi multa vel intacta vel ſummatim perſtricta præterierit. In eis, quæ ad rem eccleſiaſticam et antiquitates præſertim eccleſiæ Anglicanæ pertinent, nihil fere deſiderandum reliquit; in cæteris plerumque remiſſior fuit. Credidi igitur et Collegii famæ et reverendiſſimi benefactoris memoriæ, orbiſque litterarii commodo me conſulturum, ſi horas ſubſecivas in tanto antiquitatum eccleſiaſticarum et civilium theſauro eruendo deſcribendoque conſumerem. Ad opus igitur me accinxi, haſque mihi impoſui leges. Primum ut formam et antiquitatem ſingulorum codicum deſcriberem: in qua deſcriptione cum mihi neceſſe fuerit conjecturis plerumque niti, non diffiteor me ſæpius erraſſe; eadem tamen utor apologia, qua ſimili

in re uſus eſt cl. Caſleius. Poſt hanc qualemcunque codicis deſcriptionem ſequitur index ſingulorum articulorum, qui in eo continentur; in quo condendo mihi religio fuit veteres titulos ad amuſſim tranſcribere, alienumque omnino a propoſito judicavi, ea quæ parum latine ſonant, mutare vel corrigere. Si aliquando nomen autoris ex aliorum codicum collatione collegerim, ita uncis incluſum appoſui, ut lectori videre liceat, illud aliunde eſſe deſumptum. Sed forſan neſcio quis objiciet, multa quidem in hoc catalogo occurrere in prioribus omiſſa, pleraque tamen nullius fere momenti, ſatiuſque fuiſſe, ea quæ tam parvi ſunt pretii ſilentio præteriiſſe: ſed confido non omnia a me nunc primum in lucem edita ejus eſſe generis: et de cæteris quæ pleriſque forſan contemnenda negligendaque videntur, cauſam meam dicant Catalogi MSS. Angliæ et Hiberniæ editores. "Viſum eſt, inquiunt, MSS. omnes, ſive mino-" ris ſive melioris notæ, prout in bibliotheca occurrunt, in catalogum redi-" gere; eo quod diverſis uſibus inſervire poſſunt, variiſque curioſorum homi-" num propoſitis. Adeoque qui huic forte homini videantur negligendi; " iidem alii, qui alia ſibi propoſuit inquirenda, forent in ſuos uſus expetendi. " Quin et quum in eodem volumine diverſi tractatus occurrant plures, ſi eo-" rum aliqui minoris forte ſint eſtimandi, id compenſabit aliorum valor." Notas a Parkero, Jocelino, aliiſque, codicibus inſcriptas, Jameſium et Stanleium ſecutus retinui; quaſdam ab eis prætermiſſas inſerui; meas aliquando addidi. Inſcriptiones, quibus conſtat vel de poſſeſſore codicis, vel de ſeculo quo ſcriptus fuit, tranſcripſi. Eum ordinem codicum ſequutus ſum, quo nunc in bibliotheca diſponuntur, utpote generali uſui magis accommodatum: ſed ut facilius inveniatur codex quicunque ex numero ipſius vel in veteri catalogo Stanleiano vel in catalogo MSS. Angliæ et Hiberniæ, eundem numerum ſemper in margine appoſui; et duplicem tabulam huic uſui inſervientem ad finem addidi. Si tractatus aliquis ſæpius in bibliotheca occurrat, in margine identidem adnotavi; ſed cum non ſemper mihi daretur facultas tractatus iiſdem titulis inſignitos inter ſe conferendi, fieri poteſt ut aliquando diverſi ſint, etſi ſimilibus gaudeant επιγραφαις. Ea enim eſt lex hujus bibliothecæ a fundatore ſancita, ut neque ſocius aliquis ſolus eam adire poteſt, ſed ſemper alio ſocio vel ſcholari comitatus, neque pluſquam tres codices in cameram ſuam aſportare, idque non ſine licentia magiſtri duorumque ſociorum prius impetrata.*

* "I own indeed I may be miſtaken in aſſigning the century, in which a book was written; and inſtead of the ixth, may have fixed upon the viiith or xth century. But is it not better to be told that a book is 900 years old, when perhaps it may be 1000 or 800, than to be left quite in the dark as to it's age?"

impetrata. Prohibuit hæc lex, ad cujus obſervantiam omnes juramento aſtringimur, ne codices illa, quam optarem, diligentia inter ſe conferram. Ea tamen fuit humanitas et magiſtri et ſociorum, quibus me et hoc et aliis nominibus multum debere grato animo confiteor, ut per quinque fere annos, quibus in hoc opere laboravi, licentiam codices in cameram aſportandi facillime concederent, bibliothecam adeundi ſe comites benigniſſime præberent, et demum catalogum qualitercunque confectum ſuis impenſis typis mandari vellent. Ad codices ſaxonicos quod attinet, linguæ, in qua exarantur, prorſus ignarus Wanleium ubique ſecutus ſum; eorundemque notitiam ex locupletiſſimo ejus catalogo deſumpſi. Hæc ſunt, quæ in hoc catalogo condendo perficere conatus ſum, laboribus meis fruatur amicus lector, errata mihi condonet, et ſphalmata typographica, quæ ex abſentia mea a prælo in magnum accreverunt numerum ignoſcat et corrigat.

A large paper book in folio, containing

The Romance of the St. Grayl.

It is with diffidence that I have ventured to affix to this volume a title ſo different to that which it has borne in former catalogues; eſpecially as I muſt acknowledge that the exceſſive length of this poem, which conſiſts of not leſs than forty thouſand lines, deterred me from attempting the peruſal of it. The book is imperfect both at the beginning and at the end, the title at the top of the firſt page, viz. "Acta quædam Arthuri regis, which has been tranſcribed by James and Stanley, appears to me to have been written by Joceline ſecretary to archbiſhop Parker. How little pains this learned man gave himſelf to diſcover the true title of this poem, and in what contempt he held theſe firſt efforts of the Britiſh muſe is evident from the following ſentence inſcribed by him on a blank leaf at the beginning of this volume,

" Oh quantos labores inſumpſerit hic autor in rebus non ita probabilibus."

As far as I can judge from a curſory reviſal, the whole is one continued narrative, divided into books or ſections of very different lengths; and I take it to be a tranſlation of the French legend mentioned by Biſhop Nicholſon in his hiſtorical library p. 91. The paſſages on which I have grounded my opinion are the following, which I have here inſerted to enable the reader to judge what foundation there is for it, and to give him a ſpecimen of the poet's verſification.

" Thanne paſſeth forth this ſtorye with al

After this laſt paſſage which ſtands nearly in the middle of the book, the ſcene and perſonages of the poem change, and king Enalach king Mordrens, ſir Neſciens, Joſeph of Arimathea and the other heroes of the former part, give place to king Arthur, king Brangors, king Loth and other monarchs and champions of the Britiſh line.

To another paſſage very ſimilar to the ſecond here quoted is the following marginal note written in the ſame hand as the text. "Henry Lonelich "Skynner, that tranſlated this boke oute of Frensſhe into Englysſhe at the "inſtaunce of Harry Barton."

L'hyſtoires des Seigneurs de Gaures:

Ita placuit autori fabulam ſuam nominare; — dubitavit Cl. Stanleius utrum ficta ſit an vera hiſtoria: ſi codicem diligentius evolviſſet, nullus fuiſſet dubitandi locus. Argumentum enim operis breviter ſic ſe habet; Guido de Gaure, qui tempore B. Ludovici regis Francorum floruiſſe dicitur, uxorem incontinentiæ falſo ſuſpectam, et parvulum filium Ludovicum nomine, in exilium egit. Ludovicus, maturæ jam ætatis, relicta matre in orientem profectus eſt; ubi apud Antenorem ducem Athenarum hoſpitio acceptus, multiſque in inimicos ducis viriliter peractis, Idoriam filiam Antenoris duxit in uxorem, eoque defuncto, ſummo potitus eſt imperio. Tandem in Galliam reverſus, in haſtiludio apud Compendium adhuc incognitus rei militaris peritia ſummam adeptus gloriam, a parentibus maximo cum gaudio accipitur. Rectius igitur, ut mihi videtur, feciſſet autor, ſi hiſtoriam ſuam nuncupaverat, "La romance de Louis de Gaures." If this remark of archbiſhop Parker be true, the book muſt have been written in the reign of Henry II. and ſhortly after the death of Becket whoſe martyrdom is here related, and we muſt ſuppoſe the account of his tranſlation which did not happen till the reign of king John to have been ſince added. Perhaps we may more juſtly aſſign a later date to this poem, and ſuppoſe it to be of the ſame age as this copy, which appears to have been written in the latter end of the fourteenth century.    Huic hiſtoriæ prefixæ ſunt Angliæ emenſuratio et recenſio ſeptem regnorum Heptarchiæ, illa Gallice, hæc Latine.
   Ipſa hiſtoria incipit "Britannia inſularum optima inter Galliam," et ex Galfredo Monumetenſi ſatis inſcite et jejuniter compilata videtur: mores enim ſui ſeculi ad priſtinum hoc tempus tranſtulit autor imperitus, et loquitur de parliamento, baronibus, comitibus, et homagio feudali apud Britonas.
3. Nomina regum Angliæ et chronica Saxonum.
   In hoc chronico deducitur hiſtoria Angliæ uſque ad Edwardum I. ſea ita raptim ut binis ſaltem conſtet foliis.
   Incipit, "Adelſtanus fuit primus rex de Saxonibus in Anglia qui regnavit poſt Chadwalladum ultimum regem Britonum; ipſe vero Eymunderneſſe quam a paganis emerat in perpetuam elemoſinam eccleſiæ S. Petri Ebor. dedit."

6. Quædam de conqueſtu Hyberniæ et jure regis Angliæ in Scotos, fol. 6.
7. Prophetiæ Sybillæ et Merlini.
Precedentia hæc chronica non Gualtero Coventrenſi (ſi ipſe demum ſubſequentium autor ſit habendus) ſed potius anonymo cuidam monacho ſani S. Petri apud Eboracenſes adſcribenda videntur, uti ſatis liquet ex donatione cujus ſit mentio in initio chronici Anglo-Saxonum, chartaque et hiſtoriis quæ illud excipiunt. Nec vero abſimile videtur hoſce quaterniones codici fuiſſe poſtea inſertos, nam etſi caractere reliquis ſimili exarentur, magna tamen cernitur literarum initialium varietas, quæ in illis ſimplici forma ſine ornamento rubro atramento delineantur, in reliquo autem codice multo ſunt ornatiores et diverſis coloribus picta.
8. Annales Angliæ per Walterum Coventrenſem.
Titulus hic neotericus ex inſcriptione ad imum hujus paginæ deſumptus videtur, quæ ita ſe habet "Memoriale fratris Walteri de Coventr" et quæ "manu diverſa et recentiori ſcripta" ut placuit Cl. Tannero "innuit hoc potius donum fuiſſe Gualteri quam ſcriptum." De hac controverſia aliorum ſit judicium, inſcriptio ipſa reliquo codici haud multo recentior mihi videtur; et opus hoc Waltero olim fuiſſe adſcriptum probat titulus deformi manu (ſeculo xv, ſi conjecturis uti liceat) in folio rejectitio ad finem codicis exaratus.
In annalibus ad finem anni 1154 "Explicit chronica Mariani," et ſimiliter ad finem anni 1201 "Explicunt chronica Rogeri Hovedene." Incipiunt "Romanorum nonageſimus tertius" et continent hiſtoriam Angliæ ab anno $\frac{1025}{1003}$ ad annum 1225.

Codex chartaceus forma oblonga in folio, ſeculo xv ſcriptus, in quo continetur

Itinerarium ſive liber rerum memorabilium Willelmi [Bottoner] de Worceſtre.

Hic codex charactere valde difformi exaratur, et interlineationibus ubique ſcatet ita ut videtur autographum autoris in itineribus ſuis compilatum: occidentales et orientales partes hujus regni ſæpe viſitavit, eccleſias et monaſteria deſcripſit ſeu potius menſuravit, nihil enim notavit præter longitudines et latitudines quas per greſſus ſuos computavit, et ex obituariis et chronicis quædam excerpſit: diligentiam facile laudares, judicium ubique deſiderares; primus tamen fuit, qui Angliam perluſtrare aggreſſus eſt, et ſi maximas laudes aſſecutus ſit Lelandus veſtigiis ejus feliciore gradu inſiſtens, nonnullæ ipſi Bottonero debentur, qui viam ei monſtravit.

Habetur in hac bibliotheca apographum hujus codicis, ſed parum fidele, multa enim omittuntur, multa perperam tranſcribuntur, in locis tamen difficilioribus uſui eſſe poteſt in vera lectione indaganda; in ſequenti igitur indice notavi paginam utrius codicis ubi res ſingulæ occurrunt,*

A parchment book in 4to, written in the xiv century, entitled

Le miroir des dames.

In the dedication to Jane queen of France and Navaire, the writer, who was of the order of friars minor, ſays that he undertook the tranſlation of this work out of Latin into French " afin qu'elle apprende ſon devoir envers " Dieu, et comment elle doit gouverner ſa perſonne, ſon hotel et ſes ſujets et " par quelles vertus elle puiſſe venir a gloire pardurable et ſans fin."

This MS. is neatly written, and has at the beginning an illumination (now almoſt defaced) of the author preſenting his book to the queen, whoſe arms are at the bottom of the page, viz. party per pale, dexter azure, ſemée of fleurs de lys, or; ſiniſter like the dexter, with a label of three points gules in one ſhield, and in the other on a bend argent 2 lozenges gules. Hence this appears to be the very book preſented to the queen, who probably was Jane of Burgundy wife of Philip VI.
